What I'm reading at the moment...

What I'm watching and listening to...

Enjoyment and choice

	A lot	A little	Never
I read for pleasure.
I choose what I want to read e.g. books, comics etc.
I choose what I want to watch / listen to e.g. TV, films

My favourite texts are...

Tools for reading

I can use phonics and sounding out to help me read.
I know my common words and can read them easily.
I can use context clues, blurb and pictures to help me read & understand.
I can skim read a text quickly.
I can scan a text for particular words or information.
I can read aloud with understanding and expression.

Finding and using information

I can identify a text from some of its features.
I can find, select, sort and use information in texts.
I can make notes on what I read under suitable headings.
I can create new texts from my notes and/ or from what I read, listen and watch.

Understanding, analysing and evaluating

I can identify and consider the purpose of a text (e.g. to inform, to entertain, to persuade etc.)
I can identify the main ideas of a text.
I can summarise the main points of a text.
I can answer different types of questions about a text (including predicting, inferring, evaluating)
I can create different types of questions and tasks, suitable for a given text.
I can share my thoughts about structure, characters and setting.
I can give a personal response to, or an opinion of, a text.
I can recognise the difference between fact and opinion.
I can recognise if a text is trying to persuade / influence me.
I can relate the text to my own experiences.
I can make connections between the text and my learning.
I can comment on how good / effective a text is referring to: word choice, soundtrack, imagery, features of genre etc.

So, how are you doing?
Progress?
Things to be proud of?
