

Read and Understand

Choose 4 tricky/interesting words from the text. Discuss and note their meanings:

1. protagonist
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Infer What's Not There

1. Make a list of all the people or businesses that benefit from WBD in some way.

2. Discuss and Decide:
Who gets the most benefit from WBD?
Who gets the least?

Reflect and Respond

How does Daddacool get his children to read? Should parents do this? Why?

What is in the bag on Daddacool's desk?
(Infer)

Reflect and Respond

'World Book Day is just a waste of time and money.'

Discuss in your group, giving reasons for your answer.

Text: World Book Day
(Article and Blog—Read BOTH texts)

3 MUST DO + choose 1 GROUP CHAT
+ 1 other

Connect 4

For you, what is the best thing about World Book Day?

OR

'Reading offers a lifetime of pleasure.'
Do you agree? Why?
Why not?

Explore Some More

Copy this grid into your jotter. Note all the reasons 'For' and 'Against' WBD that are mentioned in the articles.

For WBD

Against WBD

Explore Some More

Notice how the paragraphs are laid out in the articles. Now look at a fiction book and compare the layout.

How does the layout differ?

Create Something Great

Imagine you are a blogger. Write a 100 words about your personal views on WBD. Include:

Blog Name and Logo
Headline
An illustration by you
Imaginary web address

